

ACCORDIAN

The diagram illustrates a website layout with a central orange content area surrounded by a grey grid. The content area is divided into several sections:

- Section 1: A large orange box containing three horizontal lines, labeled "1." above it.
- Section 2: A blue header bar with the text "HOW TO APPLY" and three horizontal lines below it, labeled "2." above it.
- Section 3: Another orange box containing three horizontal lines, labeled "3." above it.
- Section 4: A blue header bar with the text "FIND A CAMP" and a "SEARCH BY STATE" button below it.
- Section 5: Three orange boxes arranged horizontally, each containing two horizontal lines.
- Section 6: A blue header bar with the text "WHAT PARENTS ARE SAYING" and four pie charts below it, each showing a percentage: 91%, 94%, 91%, and 91%.
- Section 7: An orange bar at the bottom containing the word "FAQS" inside an oval.

A brown curly brace on the right side groups the first three sections (1, 2, 3) under the heading "ACCORDIAN".
